

TRUMP

BIDEN

JOBS AND THE ECONOMY

Trump's tax cuts for the wealthy benefited the top 1 percent who will get 83 percent of the gains in the bill's final year.

Under the Trump administration, projections are for 20-30 percent unemployment, which would exceed the unemployment levels of the Great Depression.

The Trump administration has refused to raise the federal minimum wage, costing workers more than $2,500 annually due to inflation.

Under the Trump administration, nearly 1 million people who work in education have already lost their jobs in this recession and another 1.4 million are in danger of losing their jobs.

Trump pledged to eliminate the payroll tax if he's re-elected this November—a move experts say will totally deplete Social Security by 2023.

Biden will repeal the Trump/Republican tax cuts benefiting corporations and the wealthiest Americans.

Biden will support the American economy by investing $400 billion in products made by American workers.

Biden supports a $15-an-hour federal minimum wage.

Biden supports providing state, local and tribal governments with the aid to fund educators, firefighters, healthcare and other essential workers.

Biden will protect and strengthen Social Security by asking Americans with especially high wages to pay the same taxes on those earnings that middle-class families pay.
