

#AFTvotes Warnock and Ossoff

For four years, we have witnessed stonewalling, confusion and chaos in our government at the highest levels. Today, all eyes are looking to Georgia to change that. Both U.S. Senate seats from Georgia are up for grabs, and on Jan. 5, the people of Georgia will decide who their senators will be and, ultimately, who will control the Senate for the next two years. This election will have a huge impact on the life and well-being of every Georgian. Rev. Raphael Warnock and Jon Ossoff will be senators Georgians can trust to lead with conviction, with compassion, and with the best interests of the people of Georgia in mind.

What does this mean for Georgians?

- Relief for Georgia businesses, schools and families crippled by the coronavirus pandemic
- Renewing the Voting Rights Act, and securing voting rights for every citizen
- Strengthening your healthcare and lowering prescription drug prices
- Protecting young immigrants who came to the United States illegally as children—known as Dreamers—and establishing a path to citizenship for more than 2 million immigrants without legal status
- Addressing climate change, and protecting the environment
- Making sure the water we drink and the air we breathe is clean and safe

On Jan. 5, you can make a difference on these issues and in your lives. This election isn't about turning Georgia red or blue—it's about turning Georgia true. Let's make Georgia a state where everyday people are represented, not by the political elite, but by everyday people. Warnock and Ossoff will work for Georgians the way we expect our leaders to.
